Past performance of strategies and benchmark indexes do not guarantee future results. Future results may be higher or lower than the results shown, and include the possibility of loss of principal.

Strategy performance presented is based on a composite of all accounts in the strategy and actual returns for individual client accounts may vary.

Returns are presented net of management fees and reflect the reinvestment of dividends and other earnings. Gross returns do not reflect the effect of tax considerations, management fees, transaction costs, custody expenses or other expenses that may be paid by actual accounts. The net returns reflect performance net of management fees and transaction costs only.

Index returns are for comparative purposes only and were supplied by sources deemed reliable and accurate; however, no warranty or representation is made as to their accuracy. While Index returns do not reflect the deduction of any costs or expenses, you cannot invest directly in an index. Securities in the World Asset Management strategies, along with overall performance, may not match those of the index and may differ.

The material presented has been compiled from third party sources and is subject to change at any time. Nothing presented is intended to provide, and should not be relied upon for, any accounting, legal or tax advice, or any investment recommendations. This material is not intended to be an offer or solicitation for the purchase or sale of any security or other financial instrument. The strategies described may not be suitable for all clients. Securities and other non-deposit investment products are not insured by the FDIC; are not deposits or other obligations of, or guaranteed by, Comerica Bank or any of its affiliates; and are subject to investment risks, including possible loss of the principal invested.
